Preface:	10
I Defining Conservatism: Organizing the defining principles of conservatism.	13
Organizing the defining principles of conservatism	13
Great thinkers of history have led to define cultural, environmental, libertarian, economic, democratic and constitutional conservatives.....	15
Fritz Haber: A Case Study of the willful blindness that prevents learning from history.	17
Civilization cannot be achieved without reason.....	19
1) The Economic Conservatism Polarity:	22
a. Explaining economic hard times – free markets are not perfect, but are better than any totalitarian alternative.	25
b. The Great Recession – economic freedom includes the freedom to fail.	28
c. Economic systems and biological systems have much in common: Individual, free citizens participate in complex trade networks.....	29
d. Natural distributions reinforce inequality of outcomes – including in economic systems.	30
1. Most human activities follow a Pareto distribution – not a “normal” Gaussian curve.....	33
2. Inequality is way more ancient and troublesome than mere free markets.....	35
e. Why nations fail today – extractionist regimes take away from entrepreneurial initiative and freedom.	39
f. The five main ideas of economic conservatism:.....	42
1. Freedom from excessive administration – limited and minimal government.	42
Think of the Trudeau method: Big, interventionist government	42
The problem has been bad regulation – not too little regulation	43
2. Freedom from oppressive regulation – lower and simpler taxes and rules.....	45
Tax reform and the inequality of “progressive” taxation.	46
To reform and simplify the tax code enhances productivity and jobs.	47
3. Freedom from debt – ending personal and government indentured servitude..	47

The trouble with Keynesian economics	48
The Canadian Ship of State is on a course to sink due to a debt crisis.....	50
i. Personal debt	50
ii. Government debt.....	51
iii. Canada has current account deficits:	53
iv. Canada is experiencing marked asset inflation:.....	54
v. Canada has falling economic output:.....	55
vi. Canada cannot avoid a debt crisis without some actual budgeting.	55
Planning to eliminate Canada’s national debt: a new economic sovereignty.....	56
4. Freedom to trade – reducing trade barriers.....	58
The Corn Laws of Britain and Canada	58
Canadian conservatives did not always support free trade with the United States	59
The trouble with protectionism	60
Federal Liberal incoherence on free trade	62
Towards coherent Canadian trade policy	63
5. Freedom of the democratic nation state – retaining Canadian sovereignty.	64
Canada needs a new National Policy that protects our sovereign national interest. ..	64
Foreign property speculators should not be able to buy up homes and drive up home prices in Canada.....	65
A case study for the Canadian national interest over-riding freer trade.	66
Not everything is for sale.....	67
g. Conservative Economic Prescription:	69
2) The Libertarian Conservatism Polarity.....	70
a. Defining Libertarian Conservatism	71
1. Back to John Locke and his Second Treatise of Government	71
2. The Libertarian Conservative	72
b. Consequences of Libertarian Conservatism on national policy.....	76
1. Free citizens from intrusion of their privacy.....	77
2. Free consumers and citizens from intrusive bureaucracies	79

3.	Canadian citizen freedoms will be lost if we do not understand and use them. .	80
	A case study how vaccine mandates are not justified for COVID-19.	84
i.	Truck! Trudeau. A Yes to vaccines – but a No to vaccine mandates.....	84
ii.	Why were the COVID-19 vaccines less effective?	85
iii.	The basic principles of medical ethics have been violated by vaccine mandates. .	87
iv.	If patient autonomy has typically been regarded as highest priority in western bioethics – where has it gone?	88
v.	The limits of authority or legitimacy of state entities to impose measures to protect public health.	92
vi.	Free and open scientific inquiry is needed.	94
vii.	Freedom from coercion: COVID vaccine mandates are anathema to the libertarian conservative.	96
	Use of the Emergencies Act was neither justified nor necessary to deal with the Ottawa Freedom Convoy.	97
c.	Human nature applied to freedom: What is the incentive?.....	99
d.	A refutation of classical Marxism: It may seem like a utopia, but it is actually dystopia – the opposite of freedom.	100
e.	A refutation of cultural Marxism: It may be “woke,” but it’s intellectually broke.	103
	The conservative answer to cultural Marxism.....	105
f.	The new polarity in international affairs is between oppression and freedom.	107
1.	The dystopia of China – an example of contemporary oppression.....	107
2.	Canadian relations with China will get worse before they get better.....	109
	Libertarians can be conservative: Leave citizens alone to their own devices as much as possible.	110
3)	The Democratic Conservatism Polarity:.....	112
a.	Definition of democratic conservatism – freedom for a polity.	113
b.	The origin of the first democracy – Ancient Greece and the first Parliament.	114
c.	The first defence of democracy.	115
d.	A free democracy must always stand on guard for thee.....	116

Democracy must be defended again.	117
The Battle of Salamis.....	118
e. A triumph for democracy.....	119
f. The first democracy: Ancient Greece still shows that democratic freedom is not perfect – just the best of the options available.....	121
Many Ancient Greek philosophers themselves did not like Athenian democracy.....	122
Canadian citizens who are uninformed and uneducated go out and vote.	125
g. Direct democracy: Having referenda, citizen initiative and recall by free citizens.	127
h. Representative democracy: Responsible, free citizens may delegate authority – but they retain ultimate authority.	129
1. Alexis de Tocqueville summarized the qualities of representative democracy.	130
Some observations of Tocqueville related specifically to the United States.	131
Many of the observations of Tocqueville could be applied to Canada.	132
Do we have an elected dictatorship in Canada?	133
2. The freedom of representative democracy has unintended consequences.....	133
The tyranny of the majority	134
Democracy tends to turn us against authority and towards mediocrity.	134
i. The trouble with American exceptionalism: Freedom cannot be unique to any one country of the world.	137
International Treaties must respect individual global citizens, democratic national sovereignty – and be effective.....	140
i. Examples of international treaties.....	140
ii. Respect of the individual global citizen.....	141
iii. National interest determines if an international treaty should proceed:	142
iv. Useless or ineffective international treaties should not be supported in the first place:.....	142
v. Civilization is not achieved by exceptionalism – especially when this turns into exemptionalism.	143
j. Reform of Canada’s representative democracy: Stronger voice for free citizens..	144

1. Reform of election to the lower house – the preferential ballot.	144
2. Reform of the upper house – comparing Canada’s ineffective Senate to a more effective Australian Senate.....	146
Conservative Prescription – Democratic reform to enhance the freedom of Canadian citizens.	150
1. Basic precepts of reform for democratic conservatives.....	152
2. A role for Canada to endorse democracy internationally	153
3. Real freedom and democracy require involvement of all Canadian citizens.....	156
